

By Craig Hoffman

As Hickory Hills Country Club just opened, the Chilton golf team finally got onto its home course last Friday hosting the Chilton/Hilbert Invitational. The meet featured the Tigers and Hilbert, along with Menasha St. Mary Central and New Holstein. Each school has three two-player teams. The first six holes are played best ball, the next 6 holes in scramble format, and the final 6 in alternate shot format.

New Holstein won the meet scoring a 249. St. Mary Central was second at 271, followed by Hilbert at 275 and Chilton 286.

The Tiger duo of Preston Pethan and Zach Woelfel had a 91 while the Chase Owns-Lance Hephner duo had 96 and Brandon Moehn-Tyler Woelfel a 99.

Top duo was New Holstein's team of Blake Simon and Michael Voelker. They scored a 79.

By Craig Hoffman

Another strong showing by the Husky golf team Friday as they won the Chilton/Hilbert Invitational at Chilton's Hickory Hills Country Club. The meet featured the Huskies, Chilton, Hilbert and Menasha St. Mary Central. Each school has three two-player teams. The first six holes are played best ball, the next 6 holes in scramble format, and the final 6 in alternate shot format.

New Holstein won the meet scoring a 249. St. Mary Central was second at 271, followed by Hilbert at 275 and Chilton 286.

Top duo was New Holstein's team of Blake Simon and Michael Voelker. They scored a 79. The Husky team of Joe Baldwin and Craig Skibo had 84, while Brett Schmitt and Quinton Herhartz came in at 86.