Ashley Pagel and Alyssa Kartheiser both won their matches but Chilton's girls tennis team lost the decisive third set in three other matches and that was costly in a 5-2 non-conference dual meet loss at St. Mary's Springs in Fond du Lac last week Monday.

Pagel dropped the first set of her three singles bout with Allison Cramer before rallying for a 3-6, 6-3, 6-4 win. Kartheiser followed the same route losing set one at number four singles before coming from behind for a wild 4-6, 6-4, 7-6 (7-5) win.

Chilton also beat Waupun 7-0 in a recent Eastern Wisconsin Conference match and competed this past Tuesday in the WIAA Division 2 Sub-Sectional at Kohler Sports Core.
