Perennial power Plymouth breezed to first place last Thursday in an Eastern Wisconsin Conference girls swim triangular at the Chilton Middle School pool. The Panthers won 10 of the 12 events scoring 170 points with Kohler Triad second at 85 and Chilton-Valders third at 69.

C-V received third place finishes from Andi Berger in the 50 freestyle (28.23 seconds), Kallie Knutson in diving (90.65 points), Denys Koenigs in the 100 butterfly (1:14.27) and the 200 freestyle relay team of Katrien Rogers, Katherine Johnson, Allison Barnes and Koenigs. They had a time of 1:59.70.

Chilton hosts the Eastern Wisconsin Conference Championships this Saturday where defending champ Plymouth comes in as a heavy favorite to repeat.

Diving action starts at 11 a.m. and swimming finals are at 2 p.m. at the Chilton Middle School Pool.
