Another shutout win for the Raider girls tennis team.

Waupun was the latest victim as the Warriors fell 7-0 to Kiel in a Eastern Wisconsin Conference dual at the Rockville courts last week. Only two matches went to a decisive third set where Emily Freis (3 singles) and team of Samantha Mathes and Laura Lange (1 doubles) were able to pull out the wins. In JV matches, Ellie Karls won in singles play while doubles teams of Tess Dehne and Taylor Barts, along with Elise Ott and Lydia Blatz, and Alex Ninmer and Bethany Pritchard, all won.

Springs wins a close one

Kiel split the four singles matches, but Fond du Lac St. Mary's Springs took two of the three doubles matches and grabbed a 4-3 non-conference girls tennis dual win on Monday.

"Windy conditions made it tough to control the ball," said Kiel coach Maree Karls.

Birte Brinkmoeller and Emily Freis won in singles. Brinkmoeller cruised past Heather Schrauth 6-0, 6-2 at one singles and Freis beat Allison Cramer at three singles 6-2, 6-0.

Jessica Blatz and Jennifer Tollefson won their three doubles match by downing the Ledgers' team of Taylor Lamb and Miranda Wolf 6-3, 7-5.
