

By Craig Hoffman
Tri-County News

The Husky volleyball team went on the road last Thursday and picked up a crucial win sweeping a strong Kewaskum squad 25-16, 25-21, 25-22. The NH junior varsity took two of three matches from the Indians 25-19, 17-25, 25-16. Tristin Guelig and Allieson Mirsberger led the team with five kills each.

The win streak continued Saturday as the Huskies hosted their own invitational tournament where they opened with an easy sweep of Kohler (25-9, 25-13) behind the play of Sara Steffen, Amelia Mirsberger, Kayla Meyer and Lauren Voelker. Eventual champ Bonduel and runnerup Green Bay West dealt the Huskies losses before NH regrouped to Hilbert 25-17, 25-23.

FVL Invite

New Holstein rolled to the championship game recently of the Fox Valley Lutheran Invitational in Appleton. The Huskies swept Weyauwega-Fremont in two games and beat Winnebago Lutheran Academy two games to one before sweeping Campbellsport (25-23, 25-16) and host Fox Valley Lutheran (26-24, 25-20) to get to the championship match where FVL got their revenge winning 25-10.

Last week Tuesday, New Holstein took three out of four games from Ozaukee in a non-conference match in the NHHS gym.

The Husky JV's swept Ozaukee 25-10, 25-7, 25-10. Allieson Mirsberger, Morgan Becker, and Danielle Brenner led the team with eight kills each. Morgan Becker also served six aces.